

SHELTER FOR WOMEN AND WOMEN W/CHILDREN

Atlanta Union Mission

(My Sister's House)

This organization provides emergency shelter to women in need. Emergency shelter clients receive two meals per day (week) and three meals a day (weekend), personal care items, laundry facilities and clothing. Referrals to health care, legal assistance, housing, and job placement are provided. All clients must participate in chapel/devotion time, life skills classes and parenting classes. The mission also offers an addiction recovery program to women seeking recovery from chemical dependency, domestic violence, and other life controlling issues. Clients of this program are expected to make a minimum commitment of 6 months.
